Celebrate Black History Month by Planning an Inspiring Getaway

Honor the contributions of African-American heroes with Maryland roots such as Harriet Tubman and Frederick Douglass and plan an inspiring journey along the Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad Byway and other remarkable African-American heritage and history sites throughout the state.

Open For Heroes
Vote for Maryland Trails in USA Today’s Poll

USA Today wants your help in naming North America’s favorite recreational trail, and the C&O Canal Towpath and Great Allegheny Passage are both in the running. Vote for your favorite now!

Image courtesy of Doug Riegner

Vote For Our Great Trails

---

Fresh Snow Means Fantastic Winter Fun

Hit the slopes at Wisp Resort, schuss the cross-country skiing trails at your favorite state park, or just get out and experience the freshly fallen snow at your favorite Maryland outdoor destination.

Fantastic Family Fun

---

Masks On Maryland

Getting out this year means remembering to be safe-- for yourself, and for the people around

---

Have Maryland Inspiration Delivered to Your Door

Order your copy of Destination Maryland Magazine and one of our awesome Maryland travel packets you. Get the latest COVID-19 information and tips on staying safer with Masks On Maryland.

Masks On Maryland

Order/View Now
to begin planning your 2021 vacations now. Or check it out online, it’s all at the link below.

Calendar  Trip Ideas  Byways  Contact us

Facebook  Twitter  Instagram

OPEN FOR IT
visitmaryland.org

Maryland
DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
ATTORNEY GENERAL
Larry Hogan
GOVERNOR